CALUMET

1961

Susquehannock High School
Glen Rock, Pennsylvania
Volume No. X

Foreword

"Snowbound" is the theme of your 1961 Calumet. We shall never forget the times we were snowed-in and the deadlines were drawing near. For this reason we have selected "Snowbound" as our theme.

As you turn these pages you will catch glimpses of classes, activities and friends. We hope it will bring back to you fond memories.

Mr. Mergenthaler . . .

For his unfailing loyalty, his faithful service, and his guiding hand, we, the members of the 1961 Calumet Staff, take this opportunity to dedicate to him this yearbook.

Through this dedication we hope to extend to him, now in his final year of teaching, our appreciation and gratitude for his many years of service to our school.

We hope he will cherish his memories of Susquehannock and its students.

Administration

School Directors

Officers are: Kenneth Mellinger, Treasurer; J. W. Day, President; Joseph Lehman, Vice-President.

Representing six districts of the Southern Joint School system, the thirty members of the School Board meet to discuss and decide upon issues concerning students, school life, and activities.

Among the School Board's tasks are planning the budget, election of teachers, and determining bus routes.

The School Board holds its meetings the third Thursday of every month.

Parent Teachers Association

The mutual problems of the home and school are considered from the standpoint of the pupil's advancement and well-being when the P.T.A. organization meets the last Monday of each month. Business of the organization, pupil participation programs, discussion led by invited guests, with a brief social period in the cafeteria constitutes the agenda for the usual meeting.

Among the various activities which the P.T.A. has undertaken are the scholarship fund, back-to-school night, Seniors' graduation party and the purchase of equipment.

OFFICERS

Mrs. Mervin Orwig, Edward McCullough, Mrs. Russell Hare, Melvin Sellers.

Booster Club

OFFICERS

Maynard Messersmith, Raymond Patrizio, Robert Decker.

Citizens who are interested in the athletic program at our high school belong to this fine organization. The scoreboard and the football lights on our football field were purchased through the efforts of this club.

The Booster Club also helps sponsor the Athletic Banquet which is held each year in May. This club meets each month.

Administrators

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

MR. WILLIAM W. LONG

Basically, the process of education involves the acquisition of knowledge and skills. We are all aware, however, that unless we also gain the self-control and sense of responsibility necessary to effective participation in democratic government, our academic and vocational training will be of proportionately less value to ourselves and others.

The Class of 1961 has shown an unusual ability to see and meet its responsibilities. We have high expectations for you all.

Congratulations and best wishes.

William W. Long
Supervising Principal
University of Pennsylvania, A.B., M.S.

PRINCIPAL

We congratulate you upon the completion of your course at Susquehannock. This completion stands out as a red letter day in your life. However, if you hadn't made a definite start with a determination to see it through to the end, there would have been no day of completion and no high school graduation.

Our entire faculty wants you to succeed in your favorite endeavors. The only thing that's needed is your own co-operation with your fellow citizens wherever you may be. Give that by doing your best in every phase of your work—and no one will expect more!

Ralph A. Bortner
Principal
Gettysburg College, B.S., M.S.

MR. RALPH A. BORTNER

Administrators

Most important of the administrative assistant's duties is the handling of the business and financial aspects of the school administration.

As vice principal, Mr. Hartranft aids Mr. Bortner in matters concerning discipline and scheduling. In addition he is the school's attendance officer.

Activities

Advisor, MR. ROLAND HEATHCOTE

The high school newspaper, the Susquehanna Courier, has been a vital part of the student activities at S.H.S. since the school was organized in 1951. Time and again the paper has won recognition in both state and national competition.

The manner in which other school organizations have contributed to the financial support of the newspaper attests to the high esteem in which the students hold the Courier.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Each Thursday afternoon one may find the Student Council, under the leadership of Bill Russell, discussing situations concerning the betterment of the school and its student body.

Representatives are chosen from each homeroom plus one from each senior high class. Scholarship and leadership are among their virtues.

William Russell, President of Student Council, conducts the meeting.

Honor Societies

QUILL AND SCROLL

The members of this international journalist society are chosen by their outstanding work which they have done on the Courier or Calumet. To be eligible for membership students must be in the top $\frac{1}{3}$ of their class.

Ruth Fuhrman, Ellen Patrizio, Gerald McCleary, Sondra Sechrist, Dawn Boose.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Students who are members of the National Honor Society have shown four important qualities—scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Each member must have a 90% average and must be active in extra-curricular activities. Senior high students are the only ones admitted as members. The advisor is Miss Shallimar Sholley.

Clubs

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Students who join this club receive profitable information on the profession of teaching. Various programs of the club include movies, buzz sessions, and panel discussions. The juniors and the seniors have the opportunity to do practice teaching under the supervision of the teachers in the various schools. The officers of the club are: President, Nancy Rudisill; Vice-President, Bonnie Sipes; Treasurer, Stephanie Norris; Secretary, Ruth Fuhrman; Historian, Doris Heaps.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is under the very fine direction of Mr. Melvin Wagner. The club is organized for students who wish to broaden their knowledge in the field of science.

The students do not only experiment but also help Mr. Wagner repair faulty material. They understand the apparatus better by doing this kind of work.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

Any girl in the senior high who plans to enter the career of nursing may become a member of the F.N.A. Under the direction of Mrs. Anderson, students learn the techniques of a home nursing course. They visit various hospitals throughout the year.

The officers are President, Sylvia Seitz; Secretary, JoAnn Seitz; Treasurer, Nancy Mosebrook.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club is open to any student of Susquehannock who is interested in taking and processing pictures. During the year the members learn the techniques and processes of photography and take numerous pictures for the school publications.

Clubs

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is the largest club in the school, composed of 225 members. Their advisor is Mrs. Dorothy Holahan. The officers for the present year are President, Norman Forbush; Vice-President, Mary Hunt; Secretary, Gretchen Stein; Treasurer, Connie Carlson.

These members help the librarian by performing various tasks during their study halls. The club goes on a trip in the spring of every year. They also attend the S.L.A.P. conference held yearly at Millersville State College.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWSPAPER

The Junior High Newspaper, "Tee Pee Talk" helps the students gain experience in the field of journalism which will be useful to them in the publication of the Courier. It also brings to the junior high students news which concerns them. The advisor is Mrs. Mary Keith, who is assisted by Mrs. Sara Childs. This year the co-editors are Paul Bowman and Roberta Grove. Bill Caskey and Robert Dise serve as publishers, while Helen Ebaugh is the art editor.

THEATRE ARTS CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Lowell Wallace this club is open to boys in both junior and senior high. The members repair damaged scenery or equipment. Some of the club's main projects include the designing of the scenery for the junior and senior plays. The officers for this year are President, Kenneth Adams; Vice-President, Steven Forbush; Secretary-Treasurer, Wayne Dill.

JUNIOR HORSEMAN'S CLUB

Under the guidance of Mrs. Sarah Graham, students with an interest for horses learn proper riding techniques.

DANCE BAND

Under the direction of Mr. David Heberlig, the members of the Dance Band meet every week to practice and perfect their musical talents.

The Band furnishes music for various organizations including school dances.

QUO VADIS CLUB

"Latin lives today," is the motto of the Quo Vadis club, which is under the sponsorship of Latin instructor, Miss Phyllis Krumrine.

At the annual Roman Banquet the members endeavor to relive ancient civilization by donning the traditional Roman costume and dining in Roman fashion. Another annual activity is the State J.C.L. Convention, held this year at Montour High School.

Club officers for '60-'61 are Consul, Diane Wade; Pro Consul, Shelia Snyder; Scriba, Susan Thoman; Quaestor, Sherrie Kuhn.

JR. F.H.A.

Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothea Noss, students meet every Tuesday to become acquainted with homemaking skills. They learn handicraft work which includes knitting and crocheting. The officers for the present year are President, Linda Bricker; Vice-President, Sue Ann Bradfield; Secretary, Susan Spangler; Treasurer, Barbara Ann Bailey.

SENIOR HIGH DRAMATICS CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Elwood Ruth, the Senior High Dramatics Club promotes among the students an interest in acting. The experience they receive is invaluable in the plays produced by the junior and senior classes.

TO THE ADVERTISERS:

The cost of the yearbook is borne by the advertisers and subscribers alike. Our thanks to you for helping to make this 1961 CALUMET possible.

THE STAFF

We, the staff of 1961, sincerely hope that your memories of this school year will not fade away as the snow did since this book was compiled. We hope these memories will linger forever.

Our gratitude is extended to Mr. Curtis Störmer, our most capable advisor, without whose perseverance and unending patience our deadlines could never have been met. We also wish to thank everyone who has given his support and cooperation so that this yearbook could be published.

Commencement

The Graduating Class of 1961

ELLEN PATRIZO

JOYCE HEINDEL

Mr. J. W. Day presented diplomas to eighty-seven members of the graduating class of 1961. The tenth annual commencement exercises were held on the athletic field, June 1.

Dr. William Sundermeyer, Professor of German at Gettysburg College, was the guest speaker.

Ellen Patrizo, valedictorian, orated on the subject "A Time for Reaping" and Joyce Heindel, salutatorian, chose as her topic "Freedom Demands Responsibility."

Processional

Bill Russell receives diploma.

Junior-Senior Prom

Cut that canopy straight!

Juniors race against time.

Juniors worked feverishly for two days until the Susquehannock gym was transformed into an "Evening in Paris." Trees lined the walls and canopies gave an atmosphere of street cafes.

The annual prom was held May 20 and Bernard Hochberger's Orchestra provided the music.

Dancers enjoy music.

Seniors

New York skyline

May 25 and 26, thirty-two seniors toured the city of New York. Among their points of interest were Radio City Music Hall, Rockefeller Center, and the United Nations Building. While in New York, they saw the movie "Parrish" and the stage show "The Sound of Music."

Students wash cars on Senior Day.

Pictured here are five of the six '61 medallion winners. A boy must participate in sports for four years and a girl for three years to be given the award.

May Day

Gretchen Stein was crowned queen during the annual May Day Festivities, May 18, by Principal Ralph A. Bortner. The theme of the program was Circus Life.

Judy Glatfelter was princess in the May Day Court. The other girls pictured above were attendants to the queen. The remaining senior girls participated in a procession.

The queen and her court were entertained by school groups performing acts such as tight rope walking, tumbling, and the portraying of clowns.

The eight girls were chosen by popular vote of the student body.

Traditional Maypole Dance is presented.

Junior Play

"Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House," a comedy directed by Mr. Elwood Ruth, was presented by the Junior Class on April 5 and 6, in the school auditorium.

The cast included Jim Blandings, Richard Hartenstein, building his dream house; Muriel Blandings, Ricki Krebs, his wife; Mrs. Tompkins, Carolyn Walker, real estate agent and editor; Mr. Hackett, Jr., Brian Albrecht, a carpenter; Ted Palmer, Michael Crowe, a local boy; Mr. Tesander, Robert Brown, a well digger; Betsy Blandings, Sherrie Kuhn, a daughter; Joan Blandings, Sheila Snyder, a daughter; Sally Prutty, Lois Markel, a local girl; Mr. Retch, William Clouser, the contractor; Johnny Hackett, Terry Myers, Mr. Hackett's son; Mrs. Prutty, Diane Wade, member of a local committee; Miss Rorty, Judy Gladfelter, member of a local committee; Mrs. Eph Hackett, Bonnie Sipes, matriarch of the community; Andy Simms, David Wherley, the architect; Mrs. Hackett, Jr., Nancy Mosebrook, Mr. Hackett's wife; Irene de Pelford, Carolyn Weaver, an interior decorator.

"Good heavens! What's that?"

"YOU wanted the patio."

Senior Honor Students

The senior honor group of '61 is composed of twenty-three students.

These students must maintain a "B" average throughout their last four years of study.

Students must maintain a 90% average and be active in extra-curricular activities.

Miss Shallimar Sholly is the advisor of the organization.

Quill and Scroll

The six journalists who were recently added to the Quill and Scroll are now members of an international honor society for outstanding high school journalists.

The new members were awarded gold pins.

To be eligible for membership, students must be in the top third of their class and must have done outstanding work on either the Courier or Calumet.
